1. Introduction

At Roundhay School it is our aim to promote positive behaviours and attitudes amongst our pupils and to reward those pupils who contribute positively to both the school and the community. The aim of this document is to set out the framework by which rewards are given as well as detailing how negative behaviours at Roundhay School will be dealt with. It is the intention that a consistent use and application of this policy should ultimately result in a reduced number of negative behaviours and an increase in the number of positive stamps pupils will receive.

Without doubt, the key to the success of the framework is the consistent approach taken by all staff operating within it. This applies to both the negative behaviour system and the positive rewards system, which much be used to complement each other if we are to promote good behaviour around school and outside of school. If the system is to be successful all concerned must understand the following: when a particular behaviour occurs, an identified action, be it positive or negative, must follow. The identified action is not open to negotiation or debate. This is how we ensure consistency.

At the centre of all that we do is the pupil planner. Its use must be understood and followed by all pupils, teachers and parents.

2. Classroom rules and basic expectations

The following rules are non-negotiable and should be achievable and followed by all pupils, regardless of ability or any other factor. Our expectations are based around the 4Rs – Be Responsible. Be Resilient. Be Ready to Learn. Be Roundhay – these are our core values.

Follow all staff instructions First Time, Every Time.

- I. Arrive to lessons on time, fully equipped and ready to learn.
- II. Have your planner on the desk, open to the current week.
- III. Ensure you are wearing your uniform correctly, with pride and that your appearance is in line with school rules.
- IV. Listen when a member of staff (or another pupil) is talking. If you wish to say anything, put your hand up and wait to be asked to speak.
- V. Complete all your work to the best of your ability and without disturbing or distracting others.
- VI. Treat everyone with kindness, respect and courtesy.

These rules are self-explanatory and are not unusually demanding. Any pupil failing to adhere to these rules will be subject to the sanctions laid out in section 5.

3. Out of classroom rules and basic expectations

The following rules apply to pupils any time when they are not in lessons (e.g. on the corridor, in the dining centre, coming to and from school):

- I. Follow staff instructions First Time, Every Time.
- II. Behave respectfully and politely to all adults and pupils.
- III. Ensure you are wearing your uniform correctly, with pride and that your appearance is in line with school rules.
- IV. Look after the school/community environment (including putting litter in bins).
- V. Walk around the school and the community quietly, sensibly and safely.

Again these rules are self-explanatory and should result in pupils moving around the building in a civilised, safe and sensible manner. In particular, we need to promote an ethos whereby pupils are not using bad language and are not treating the school environment and the community with disrespect. Any pupil failing to follow these rules will be subject to the school sanctions (see section 5).

4. Positive behaviours and rewards

The use of praise to motivate pupils is central to everything we do at Roundhay School and takes many forms including:

- Informal / formal verbal feedback
- Formal STaR marking and written feedback
- Parent consultation meetings, informal verbal feedback and phone calls home
- Stamps in pupil planners
- Texts and phone calls home
- Letters and certificates
- Special events including celebration assemblies and trips

4.1 Collecting and recording of positives

Stamps are given for meeting and exceeding expectations in and out the classroom and pupils should feel a sense of pride in achieving them. Pupils collect stamps in their planner and totals are recorded and recognised by the form tutor on a weekly basis. All data is stored in the Access database which informs Form Tutors, Heads of Year and Senior Leaders who regularly praise pupils. Pupils will be rewarded for demonstrating the core values of being Responsible, Resilient, Ready to Learn and being 'Roundhay' (4Rs). It is vital that all members of staff focus on 'catching pupils being good' in order that we award as many stamps as possible.

The pupil planner is our principal means of rewarding and tracking excellence. Stamps are a simple and effective way to recognise the positive behaviours expected of a Roundhay pupil. Examples of reasons for giving stamps are given below:

- Making a positive contribution within lessons
- Demonstrating the attributes associated with being Ready to Learn
- Demonstrating our school values (being Responsible, Resilient and Ready to Learn)
- An excellent piece of classwork or homework

Recognition (daily)

- Stamps are awarded in and out of lessons for pupils who demonstrate the 4Rs:
- A maximum of 3 stamps can be awarded to pupils during every lesson.
- A maximum of 3 stamps can also be awarded to pupils at any one time for displaying positive behaviours beyond the classroom.

Additional recognition (weekly)

- A clean slate (no negative codes) is worth 10 stamps.
- 100% attendance with no late marks is worth 10 stamps per week.
- A Leadership Team / HOY stamp is worth 10 stamps.
- Attending an extracurricular club or intervention is worth 10 stamps (pupils will receive 3 stamps for each additional club they attend that week).

4.1 Other ways we reward at Roundhay

- Postcards – ongoing Departmental and Form Tutor Recognition

Postcards are an effective and pleasing means of recognising pupil performance / effort.

- At each data collection teachers will nominate 2 star pupils from their subject area. Each department’s postcard will have a personalised and individual design.
- Each half term form tutors will award postcards for pupils who consistently display the 4Rs.

- Certificates

As pupils achieve agreed numbers of stamps they receive certificates / awards as detailed below:

Stamp threshold	Award	Recognition	Recognition	Reward
4000	Roundhay Exceptional Performance Award	Certificate	Phone call	£10 off reward trip
3500	Headteacher Award	Certificate	Phone call
3000	Associate Headteacher Award	Certificate	Phone call
2500	Star Blazer Award / Prestige Pin (SLT)	Badge & letter	text	Star pin Prestige pin
2000	Diamond Award (HOY)	Certificate & Letter	text
1200	Platinum Award	Certificate	Text	£5 off reward trip
900	Gold Award	Certificate	Text
600	Silver Award	Certificate	Text
300	Bronze Award	Certificate	Text

- Rewards Events:

Rewards events are timetabled throughout the year and celebrate the cumulative achievement of pupils’ attendance, punctuality, behaviour, academic success and everything that makes them Roundhay. Events take place at the end of term and can take place onsite or as trips out. Year 11 can achieve a prestige pin and celebrate the end of KS4 with a prom. Each year culminates in a major award ceremony.

5. Recording negative behaviour

5.1 The coding system and subsequent actions

The student planner is key to the recording of negative behaviour. It is hoped that once the students understand the sanctions system, the instances of negative behaviour will reduce. This will only happen if the system is applied consistently.

All negative behaviours will be recorded in the pupil planner (on specific pages in the front of the planner) using the following coding system:

Code	Meaning	Why it would be used
B	Behaviour or defiance	This can be used in the classroom where a pupil's behaviour is not meeting our basic expectations. If the behaviour is extreme, a SIF may be used (see Section 5.4), but a negative B code should also be recorded. This code can also be used if a pupil's behaviour for learning is poor, and as a result the pupil does not make appropriate or enough progress within the lesson.
L	Late to lesson	Given to any pupil who arrives to a lesson late.
U	Uniform issue	Given to any pupil, at any time, who is not wearing their uniform correctly or is in contravention of the appearance guidelines (see Appendix 2 for the uniform and appearance guidelines).
E	Equipment issue	Given to any pupil who does not have a planner, pen, pencil or a ruler. This also includes a calculator in Maths/Science, the correct kit in PE, an apron in Food, headphones in Music, a reading book and a purple pen (first purple pen provided by school). In Year 7, pupils must also bring with them their CLP folder.
S	Social time	This can be given to any pupil who is not meeting our basic out of classroom expectations in regard to behaviour. S codes are recorded on a separate section of the planner and have a different set of follow up actions (see page 8)

Form Tutors will inform the pupil of the subsequent sanction. Any actions need to be administered quickly and consistently.

The follow-up actions for BLUE codes are given below:

Number of BLUE code negatives	Follow-up Action	Further Action
5	30 min after school detention (next possible)	Written into planner by form tutor and signed in the detention to say the pupil has attended
10	Senior Leader detention (1 hour)	Written into planner by form tutor and signed in the detention to say the pupil has attended

	after school on the next Friday)
15	1 day in internal exclusion	Parents are informed via a text message that is sent the day the pupil goes to IE which informs home that the pupil will leave school at 15.50 p.m. (or 15.00 on a Wednesday). Each pupil in IE has a conversation with a member of the Behaviour Team about their behaviour and targets are set in the pupil planner about improving their behaviour.
20 HoY Behaviour Agreement	2 further days in internal exclusion	Parents are informed via a text message that is sent the day the pupil goes to IE which informs home that the pupil will leave school at 15.50 p.m. (or 15.00 on a Wednesday). Parents must attend a meeting with the HoY. In this meeting a pupil's behaviour record over that academic year will be discussed and a HoY Behaviour Agreement written. A discussion about what the consequences will be if the pupil continues to show no improvement in their behaviour must be had, including that we may consider using another school's IE if the pupil reaches 25 codes. We will also open the discussion about managed moves/ alternative provision as an option if a pupil's behaviour continues to not meet our expectations. Positive Behaviour Manager devises a reintegration plan with the pupil. Learning Mentor support will be given to the pupil once back in lessons and HoY /Corridor Patrol checks in on them regularly.
25 Senior Leader Behaviour Agreement	3 further days in internal exclusion	Parents are informed via a text message that is sent the day the pupil goes to IE which informs home that the pupil will leave school at 15.50 p.m (or 15.00 on a Wednesday) Parents must attend a meeting with either the KS3 or 4 Assistant Headteacher: Behaviour. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss with the parent that their child has broken the HoY Behaviour Agreement. It could be that we would contact another school at this point to 'host' the pupil in IE, and certainly if the pupil's behaviour in IE is below our expectations. Positive Behaviour Manager devises a reintegration plan with the pupil. Once out of IE, the pupil would have regular contact with the Assistant Headteacher: Behaviour, reviewing their revised SL Behaviour Agreement and a weekly review meeting (or telephone conversation or email, if a parent cannot attend) about the pupil's behaviour would be held with the pupil and parent. An alternate provision plan will be set up by the Assistant Headteacher if the pupil's behaviour continues to not meet expectations. Parents will be kept fully informed about this process via the weekly meetings.
30		If the pupil reaches 30 negative codes across a half term a Behaviour Panel will be held with the pupil, parent, Assistant Headteacher and either the Deputy, Associate or Head teacher. The meeting will be held to discuss the fact that the pupil has failed to meet our basic expectations 30 times and has broken two Behaviour Agreements. The consequences of this is that the pupil will either be moved to an agreed alternate provision for a specified time before an agreed phased return to school where the pupil will be on a SL Behaviour Agreement, or, if this is a pattern that has been repeated in previous half terms in the pupil's school career, and/or an alternate provision has already been used, the school will look for a managed move to a different school or a permanent alternate provision.

Number of S code negatives	Follow up action	Further Action
5	Removal of social time (break and lunchtime) for 5 days.	Written in planner by form tutor and attendance recorded. Parents informed via the pupil planner. If a pupil fails to attend, they will be picked up by Corridor Patrol and removed to IE.
10	Removal of social time (break and lunchtime) for 10 days.	Written in planner by form tutor and attendance recorded. The HoY will inform the parents via a telephone call. If a pupil fails to attend, they will be picked up by Corridor Patrol and removed to IE.
From 15 codes	Social time will be removed for the rest of that half term. The HoY will arrange a meeting at school with the parents.

Form Tutors will input on Classcharts a running total of the number of positives (once a fortnight during the PB session) and negatives (three times a week) each pupil has gained on their planners. At the start of every half term the negatives total is reset to zero, although Behaviour Agreements may well have review dates which are over a longer period of time.

5.2 Behaviour in the Classroom

Our classroom behaviour management should follow the process outlined below. It is essential that the system is followed consistently so that pupils know very clearly what behaviours are not acceptable. Where a pupil is exhibiting a behaviour that is not in line with our basic expectations, the sanction must be given. This is not optional or up for discussion or negotiation. Negatives can be given to pupils within a lesson for any of the reasons given in the Code Table. However, in terms of classroom behaviour and the steps described below, only a Code B should be used. This is to ensure that pupils are not being exited from classrooms for not having basic equipment or not wearing their uniform correctly. Where behaviours are extreme/unacceptable, members of staff can jump to the appropriate step of the system without progressing through it. The progression of the classroom behaviour system is given below and should be used by all staff; it is not open to individual interpretation.

Step 1: Warning

The purpose of this is to let the pupil know that their behaviour is not acceptable. Nothing is recorded at this stage but a pupil will understand that their next negative behaviour will result in a negative code being recorded. Step 1 can involve a verbal warning, but it is accepted that this may mean the lesson flow is disrupted. What must consistently happen in phase 1 is that the member of staff removes the pupil's planner from the desk and places it on the teacher's desk. This in itself will indicate to the pupil that they are being warned. In subjects such as PE and Drama, a verbal warning can be given without the removal of the planner.

Step 2: B Code is given

If the pupil's behaviour does not improve after their planner has been taken, a negative B code should be given. A brief discussion should then be had with the pupil to explain why the sanction has been given and so that they understand what will happen next. Movement of the pupil within the classroom could happen at this stage but this is up to the individual teacher and will depend on the particular situation.

Step 3: Second B code is given, followed by exit timetable

If the pupil's behaviour still does not improve, the pupil should be given a further negative B code and should then be removed to the exit timetable room. It is therefore essential that all departments have a fully working exit timetable. The class teacher will record the fact that this has happened on the appropriate page in the pupil's planner. A pupil who is put out to the exit timetable will then automatically go into a 30 minute after school detention.

Step 4: On Call

On call is staffed by Senior and Middle Leaders and can be used for the following reasons:

- A pupil refuses to go to the exit timetable
- A pupil's behaviour is so extreme as to mean exit timetable is not appropriate (this will be instances like swearing at a member of staff, fighting or posing a threat to another person)
- A pupil refuses to hand over their planner (see use of planner in section 6).

Any pupil who needs on call will automatically go into internal exclusion for a minimum of 1 day. Where on call is used, the member of staff who takes the pupil to IE will be asked by the IE and Behaviour Data Manager questions about the incident and they will complete a Serious Incident Form (SIF). If more information is required the Positive Behaviour Manager will email the class teacher and ask them to complete an SIF (see section 6.4).

It is hoped that the phases above will manage to tackle most examples of poor/unacceptable behaviour. Obviously some pupil behaviours will fall outside of the normal, and other sanctions will be applied in these cases.

5.3 Behaviour outside of the Classroom

Any instances of negative behaviour outside of the classroom will be recorded in the planner in accordance with the table given in section 5.1. There is no need to give a warning for behaviour outside of the classroom. If a pupil is not meeting the basic expectations they should get a negative S code. It is expected that students will hand over their planner to any member of staff at the first request. If a student fails to hand over their planner, on-call should be used and the pupil will be isolated for 1 day, minimum, as per the sanctions procedure.

5.4 Extreme Behaviours and their likely sanctions

Behaviour	Likely Sanction
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Assault on a member of staff - Violent assault, or repeated violence towards other pupil/s - Using a weapon to injure, attack or hurt others - Setting off a firework on the school grounds - Supplying drugs to other pupils 	Fixed time exclusion (5 days in the first instance) and then an alternate provision put in place. The pupil will not return to Roundhay School.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Carrying /bringing a weapon into school - Bringing fireworks into school - Bringing drugs into school - Assault on another pupil, including out of school hours - Abusive language /threatening behaviour towards a member of staff - Repeated bullying (including on line) - Serious incident outside of school that brings the school into disrepute - Deliberately setting off the fire alarm 	Fixed term exclusion (1 to 5 days) with the likelihood of a managed move or alternate permanent provision, particularly if the pupil has already been excluded for one of these offences during their time in school. A SIF will be completed by the Positive Behaviour Manager as a record of the behaviour. If the pupil returns to school, a risk assessment, a SL Behaviour Agreement and phased return will be put in place. The pupil's behaviour will be under review via the behaviour agreement and any further SIFs or time in IE for BLUES codes will be further evidence that the pupil continues to not meet our expectations and we will look to find alternate provision either temporarily or on a full time basis.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Vandalism - Aggression /threats towards another pupil - Extreme defiance towards an adult - Homophobic, racist, sexual comments (including on line) - Smoking in school - Bringing /using alcohol or drugs in school - Fighting (not assault) 	Pupil to be removed to IE for up to two days where a SIF will be completed about the incident. Parents to be informed via a text message in the first instance and then a follow up conversation with the HoY or member of the Behaviour Team usually within 24 hours of the event.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Move towards or actively encourage fighting between others - Bullying (including on line) - Swearing at a member of staff - Stealing from the canteen /theft
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Refusal to hand over planner to any member of staff - Truancy from lesson/s - Swearing at another pupil - Rudeness to staff - Persistent refusal to follow staff instructions and continued defiance - Selling products (sweets, chocolate, drinks etc) to other pupils - Barging and continual pushing on a school corridor 	Pupil to be removed for up to IE for a minimum of one day where a SIF will be completed about the incident. Parents to be informed via a text message in the first instance and then a follow up conversation with the HoY or member of the Behaviour Team usually within 24 hours of the event.

Where a pupil reaches over three days in IE over a term, a HoY Behaviour Agreement will commence. If this is unsuccessful, the pupil will move to a Senior Leader Behaviour Agreement.

The above is not an exhaustive list and there may be other situations where a member of the Senior Leadership Team applies a sanction, and where the Headteacher /Associate Headteacher makes a judgement that a fixed term exclusion is the appropriate sanction.

The above behaviours are unacceptable in a school where our priority is to keep all children safe. We will take action when a pupil refuses to cooperate, despite our best efforts, and no improvements are made to adhere to our basic expectations.

Where a pupil's behaviour is deemed to be unsafe or is having a negative impact on other pupils, the school reserves the right to put in place a risk assessment which could include the removal of break and lunchtimes and changes to the school day.

Please note that if we suspect a pupil is under the influence of drugs or alcohol, we will ask a parent/carer to collect the child from school on medical grounds. The appropriate punishment will follow on their return to school.

5.5 Serious Incident Forms (SIFs)

SIFs should be recorded through SIMS and only when you have used the on call system and the Positive Behaviour Manager has requested via email more detail about the incident from you.

SIFs are public documents and the content may be shared with any member of the school community. They should be factual, not opinion based and includes all the relevant information, including quotations where relevant.

6. The use of the Pupil Planner

The pupil planner is central to our behaviour systems and the recording of both negatives and positives. It is therefore essential that pupils have their planners at all times. If a pupil does not bring their planner to school they will need to be given a temporary planner sheet for that day and receive an E behaviour code. This will be collected from their HoY and it must be taken back there the next day with their planner so that any information can be transferred. Each pupil can fail to bring their planner into school 3 times per academic year. For every subsequent time that the pupil forgets their planner, they will go straight into internal exclusion for 1 day in the first instance. Similarly, if a pupil does not return their temporary planner sheet, they will spend the day in internal exclusion.

The following are expected of the planner:

- Pupils will bring their planner to school every day
- The planner is treated with respect and is not defaced in any way
- Pupils will have their planners out, on the desk, open to the current week in every lesson, including form time
- Pupils will hand over their planner, without question, to any member of staff who asks for it

Where pupils have defaced their planner or removed pages, they will be expected to purchase a new planner and will go into internal exclusion for a minimum of one day. Pupils need to understand that the planner is a document which belongs to the school, not them, and showing a lack of respect towards the planner is taken as a lack of respect towards the school.

Where a pupil refuses to hand over their planner, on-call will be used and that pupil will be picked up and placed in internal exclusion for a minimum of one day.

If a pupil leaves a planner in their last lesson, they should be given a note and asked to collect it. On their return to your lesson, an E behaviour code should be given.

It is expected that parents will sign the planner each week and the BLUES page every half term. This will be made clear in our Behaviour Charter (see Section 9).

LT and HoY will complete planner checks by going into forms either in the morning or during PSHE lessons/Positive Behaviour lessons.

7. The Use of Form Time

7.1 Things to be done during form time

Please meet and greet your form at the door. Pupils should have their planners out and ready for a form tutor to see. On Tuesday, Thursday and Friday mornings please check the pupils' BLUES pages and record the number of negatives for each pupil in Classcharts. If a pupil has reached a code threshold, ensure appropriate action is taken (Please note that if one of these days is an assembly for your Year Group, it is understood you will not be able to complete the above. Please check and record at the next checking point day). On a Monday and Wednesday morning a form tutor should be checking the positive/stamps pupils have achieved, congratulating and recognising their many achievements. The number of stamps will be recorded on Classcharts by a form tutor once a fortnight during the PB session.

Form time is the most critical time of day for getting pupils ready to learn. Form tutors need to check the following every morning (including when pupils are in assembly):

- Pupils have their planner
- Pupils have the correct equipment (when in assembly, it will be incumbent on the pupil to inform the form tutor if this is not the case)
- Pupils are wearing the correct uniform

Where pupils are not in the correct uniform or are contravening the appearance guidelines they should be given a negative U code and should then be placed in internal exclusion if the situation cannot be remedied. For example, if a pupil is not wearing their blazer, they should be given a Code U and told to put their blazer on. If they don't have their blazer, they should be given a Code U and then should be taken to internal exclusion. Parents will be contacted at this stage. Where pupils do not have the correct basic equipment, they should be given a negative E code and then buy or borrow the correct equipment.

It is essential that we are consistent in this approach. By the time any pupil leaves form time they should be both fully equipped and correctly dressed or not in circulation.

The form tutor can also award positives for the following:

- Attendance at school (1 positive every day)
- No negatives in the previous week (5 positives)

7.2 Positive Behaviour Lesson

On a fortnightly basis (Monday period 1) pupils will spend one period with their Form Tutor. The purpose of this form period is:

- To highlight any key issues around school relating to both positive and negative behaviours
- To give time to the Form Tutor to record on Classcharts the number of stamps each pupil has gained in the pupil planner and input them onto the system.
- To give time for the Form Tutor to have discussions with pupils about the positives and negatives they have received.

Whilst the Form Tutor is having this discussion, pupils will work independently, quietly and without causing disruptions, on a meaningful task relating either to a core subject or the PSHE curriculum.

8. Internal Exclusions / Fixed term and permanent exclusions

Internal exclusion (IE) forms an essential part of our behaviour system and is a very serious punishment. Whilst in IE students will complete work from a bank of carefully selected work.

IE is based in the Mansion building and the pupils will be isolated in the real sense of the word. IE is run by our Positive Behaviour Manager. For the most part this person, Learning Mentors, Middle Leaders and Senior Leaders staff IE.

Our expectations of pupils whilst in IE are very high and any negative behaviours will be dealt with as in a classroom (see Section 5.2). Pupils in IE will not get normal lunch and break times.

The following is expected of pupils in isolation:

- Pupils arrive at 8.30 and are seated by the member of staff
- Mobile phones will be handed to staff at the beginning of the school day
- Whilst in IE pupils complete work to a high standard
- Pupils do not talk or communicate at all whilst in IE
- Pupils wear the correct uniform
- Pupils treat the staff and the environment with the utmost respect

Where a pupil is exited from IE more than twice in a school day, parents will be informed and a further sanction put in place. In terms of consistency, no pupil will ever leave IE until they have served their full punishment whilst adhering to our expectations.

IE will finish each day at 15.50 p.m. (accept Wednesday where it will end at 15.00). Parents and Carers will be informed via text or email if their child is in IE and the fact that it is a later school day. If a pupil has gone into IE for a serious, one off incident (and not having reached 15, 20, 25 or 30 codes) parents /carers will be informed of this via a text but will receive a phone call home from either the HoY, a member of the Behaviour team or a member of the LT, usually within 24 hours.

Pupils can be put into IE for a number of reasons. They can get there by accruing enough negatives, through the classroom behaviour system or for a one-off incident of a serious nature (this can be done only by Head of Year and Senior Leaders).

If a pupil is given fixed term exclusion, parents must collect the pupil from school and will be required to attend a Reintegration Meeting before the pupil is allowed back into the mainstream school. Any pupil who receives a fixed term exclusion will spend a period of time in IE on their return.

Permanent exclusion, where the pupil will never return to Roundhay School, can be used as the ultimate sanction for behaviours, which pose a risk to members of staff or other pupils. The control of Permanent exclusions rests solely with the Headteacher and the Governing Body of the school.

9. Positive Behaviour Charter

The Behaviour Charter highlights explicitly the basic expectations that we have of all members of the Roundhay School community. If we are to work effectively and in the best interests of all, it must be understood that everybody has a role to play and whilst the roles may be different, they are all equally important if we are to achieve a consistent approach to challenging negative behaviours and promoting the school ethos - Be responsible. Be Resilient. Be Ready to Learn. Be Roundhay. All pupils, parents and members of staff will be required to sign up to the Behaviour Charter and the demands it places on them in their particular role.

9.1 Pupil Expectations:

- I. Follow all staff instructions First Time, Every Time.
- II. Arrive to lessons on time, fully equipped and ready to learn.
- III. Have your planner on the desk, open to the current week.
- IV. Ensure you are wearing your uniform correctly and with pride and that your appearance is in line with the school rules.
- V. Never have a negative effect on the learning of another student.
- VI. Be a positive member of the Roundhay School and the local community and take full advantage of the fantastic opportunities that the School offers, both inside and outside of the classroom.
- VII. Be Responsible. Be Resilient. Be Ready to Learn. Be Roundhay.

9.2 Parental Expectations:

- I. Support the School in the administration of the Behaviour Policy.
- II. Check your child is properly equipped before they leave for school.
- III. Ensure your child has the correct uniform, is wearing it correctly and that their appearance is in line with the school rules.
- IV. Sign the planner weekly and add any comments you want the school to respond to. Check the BLUES pages every week and sign every half term.

Uniform

Extract from ‘Guidance for governing bodies, school leaders, school staff and local authorities’ September 2013:

“A head teacher, or a person authorised by the head teacher, may ask a pupil to go home briefly to remedy a breach of the school’s rules on appearance of uniform.”

(This will always take into account the age and vulnerability. It will not, in itself, constitute an exclusion or punishment but this policy allows for sanctions to be applied for not adhering to our published uniform guidelines.)

All pupils must be wearing the following both inside and outside of the school building:

- White school shirt (tucked in) with top button fastened.
- School Blazer (sleeves should not be rolled up)
- Black school trousers (tight trousers/leggings/black jeans are not acceptable). A black skirt can be worn
- Roundhay School tie (clipped on over the top button)
- Black school shoes must be worn at all times.
- A school jumper is optional.
- No other items of clothing should be visible in the school building (including wearing of coats).

Appearance

- Piercings must be restricted to one stud per ear/ nose. No other visible piercings are allowed. For health and safety reasons, hoop ear or nose rings are not allowed.
- Jewellery and make up must not be excessive.

Equipment

This will include the following:

- Calculator in Maths and Science
- Correct kit in PE
- Headphones in Music
- Reading book
- Purple pen (first purple pen provided by school)

Appendix 4 – Reasonable Adjustments

Where a child or young person is covered by SEN and disability legislation, reasonable adjustments and targeted support should be considered as part of SEND planning and review as required under the Equality Act 2010.

Students protected under the Equality Act 2010 include those with a diagnosis such as Autistic Spectrum Condition, ADHD, and Cerebral Palsy. Disabled students may be placed at a substantial disadvantage in accessing education if reasonable steps are not taken. This often will involve just an extension of the flexibility and individual approach that we have always shown to our pupils.

Examples include:

1. A pupil with a diagnosis of ASC, a pervasive and lifelong disability that may impact on the understanding of social rules and behaviours -resulting in confusion and anxiety.
Reasonable adjustment: A Pupil Passport is available to all staff and gives specific guidance such as calling for ASC Lead Support if the pupil needs to be removed from a lesson.
2. A pupil with a diagnosis of ADHD who fidgets incessantly resulting in on-going disruption to lessons.
Reasonable adjustment: An Individual Behaviour Plan advises staff on seating plan arrangements, use of stress ball, time out card.
3. A pupil with Cerebral Palsy who is unable to wear the full school uniform and who uses the school lift and is regularly late to lessons due to this.
Reasonable adjustment: Pupil Needs Directory has a pen portrait to advise staff about the difficulties with school uniform and that arrival and departure times for lessons may need to be flexible.

Appendix 7

The Department for Education in the document 'Behaviour and Discipline in Schools' (2016) makes it clear that schools have the ability to set out a policy for behaviour expectations and the individual Headteacher has the legal power to decide on appropriate rewards and sanctions. Decisions are made by school leaders, in line with the published behaviour policy and consistent with DfE guidelines which are set out in law.

The key points of DfE guidance are summarised below:

Discipline in schools – teachers' powers

Key Points:

- Teachers have statutory authority to discipline pupils whose behaviour is unacceptable, who break the school rules or who fail to follow a reasonable instruction (Section 90 and 91 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006).
- The power also applies to all paid staff (unless the headteacher says otherwise) with responsibility for pupils, such as teaching assistants.
- Teachers can discipline pupils at any time the pupil is in school or elsewhere under the charge of a teacher, including on school visits.
- Teachers can also discipline pupils in certain circumstances when a pupil's misbehaviour occurs outside of school.
- Teachers have a power to impose detention outside school hours.
- Teachers can confiscate pupils' property.

What the law allows:

- Teachers can discipline pupils whose conduct falls below the standard which could reasonably be expected of them. This means that if a pupil misbehaves, breaks a school rule or fails to follow a reasonable instruction the teacher can impose a punishment on that pupil.

It should also be noted that our number one priority is to implement this policy in a fair, consistent and equitable manner. This policy is not exhaustive and the school reserves the right to make appropriate judgements, should a situation arise where the policy does not directly address the particular action, misdemeanour or situation. It should also be noted that we will investigate all incidents or allegations appropriately. However, the 'onus of proof' is not the same as that followed by police in criminal proceeding, but on the 'balance of probabilities.' This means that we will use the sanctions outlined in this policy if the information or evidence gathered suggests that it is highly likely in our professional opinion that a particular pupil is responsible for a particular misdemeanour.

A decision to impose a sanction on an individual lies entirely with the school and this is protected by law.

We will always seek, where possible, to work with parents and carers in a positive manner to ensure the highest standards of behaviour in school. We value the home-school relationship. Please note, however, as outlined above, that decisions regarding punishments are made by the school and are not negotiated with parents / carers. Similarly, parents and carers if choosing for their child to attend Roundhay School, cannot choose for their child to 'opt out' of this behaviour policy or any of the sanctions outlined within.
